

WAITING LISTS FOR TWO CONTEMPORARY PROPERTIES TO OPEN IN NOVEMBER

MDHA to Accept Online-Only Applications on a First-Come, First-Served Basis

MDHA will open its waiting lists for two contemporary properties on a first-come, first-served basis in November 2019.

Online-only applications will be accepted for Parkway Terrace from noon Thursday, Nov. 21, 2019 until 3 p.m. Monday Nov. 25, 2019. Online-only applications will be accepted for Historic Preston Taylor Apartments from noon Friday, Nov. 22, 2019 until 3 p.m. Monday, Nov. 25, 2019. Anyone currently on these waiting lists will need to reapply.

Applications will be accepted online only and can be submitted 24 hours a day during the open application period at www.nashville-mdha.org (click on the button that says Apply for Affordable Housing). A valid email address is required, and applicants will need to register a new unique username and password for each property wait list. Each property has its own waiting list, so applicants interested in both properties will need to fill out two applications.

The new online-only application, which was created in 2018, is more extensive than the previous online-only application and will require additional time and information. A sample application is available to view on MDHA's website so that applicants can gather information needed to complete the application ahead of time. A link to the sample application is located in the waiting list story on www.nashville-mdha.org under latest news on the home page.

Assistance with the application will be provided by Catholic Charities of Tennessee from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. Monday through Friday during the open application period at their C.E. McGruder Family Resource Center at 2013 25th Ave. North. Anyone needing access to a computer with internet service may visit a public library.
